

Main race card table with columns for race number (1-18), horse number, name, jockey, and other details.

Table containing detailed statistics for each horse, including performance metrics, distance, and jockey information.

Table with horse names and numbers, likely a continuation of the race card or a specific section of statistics.

Table with horse names and numbers, continuing the list of participants and their details.

Bottom section containing race results, winning horses, and additional notes.