

Table showing horse numbers and their corresponding race numbers for the event.

Main race card table listing horses, jockeys, and their statistics. Includes columns for horse name, jockey, and various performance metrics.

Table containing detailed race statistics, including win percentages, average times, and other performance indicators for each horse.

Table providing information about the horses' parents, including names and titles, and details about their breeding and ownership.

Table showing the results of the race, including the order of finish, winning margins, and final positions for each horse.

Table containing additional race statistics, such as the number of horses that finished the race and the overall race results.